Kinnunen Remains Sebekä Board Director

Bruce Kinnunen

Patty Frame

Gene Kern

The 68th annual meeting was held May 7 at the Sebekä High School Auditorium. Board president Bruce Kinnunen talked about the commitments of the cooperative. He highlighted one of our newest products—the Skybell HD Video Doorbell.

Controller Jennifer Grewe presented the financial statements. CEO Chad Bullock discussed the cooperative's growth through expansion of our fiber-optic network into neighboring rural areas. He also talked about the importance of building relationships with state and federal legislators and having strategic partnerships. Patty Frame's retirement was announced, and she was presented with a special vase recognizing her years of service. Jason Dale, CEO of Cooperative Network Services, gave his perspective of the state of our industry. He discussed regulatory reform, fighting rising TV costs, and the status of the state's broadband deployment program. Kinnunen announced that $350,000 in capital credits will be paid to members this year.

Bruce Kinnunen was re-elected by members to continue representing the Sebekä exchange.

Door prizes were awarded after the meeting. The grand prize of one year of phone service plus 25 Mbps unlimited Internet (valued at $719) went to Linda Roiko. Gene Kern won a 48" Vizio Smart TV and Marjory Jordan won a Google Home device. Many other prizes were also given out. Sebekä students provided the music before and after the meeting.

Switch to Paperless Billing with SmartHub

Less really can be more. Because when you sign up for SmartHub and enable AutoPay from West Central Telephone, you'll use less paper each month due to paperless billing and electronic bill payment. You'll also do your part to help reduce paper use in the U.S. and save some trees.

The statistics from www.statisticbrain.com are staggering:

- 9,125,000,000 tons

Annual amount of paper used in the U.S.

- 4,000,000,000

Total number of trees cut down yearly for paper use

- 42

Percent of wood harvested that goes to paper production

- 16

Percent of landfill solid waste comprised of paper

In addition to using less paper, SmartHub will also provide the benefits of you spending less time paying bills and less money on checks and stamps. There will also be less clutter on your desk or kitchen counter. What more could you want?

To sign up for SmartHub or get further details, visit www.wcta.net, call 837-5151 or download the SmartHub App on your tablet or smartphone.

$1,000 Scholarships Awarded

We recently reviewed applications from area high school seniors. The committee awarded eight students $1,000 scholarships each. Congratulations to Emily Benson, Ashley Etter, Megan Heino, Tristen Heller, Addison Neal, Erin Olson, Morgan Palmer and Emily Veronen.
